

8. Bibliography

The following sources were used to produce this document.

- Analysis of Crime and Disorder Consultation 2001, Kirkhope Marketing, Lancaster
- Crime and Disorder Act, 1998
- Haralambos and Holborn, Sociology Themes and Perspectives, Collins Educational, London 1995
- Home Office Guidance on Producing Crime and Disorder Audits and Strategies
- Home Office web site
- Lancashire Constabulary
- Lancaster City Council
- Lancaster Inner Wards Community Audit, Policy Research Institute, Leeds Metropolitan University.
- MADE Project, Dr Peter Langmead-Jones and Prof. Dave Wastell - data sharing project for Lancashire. 2001
- Morecambe Community Audit, BMG, 7 Holt Court North, Heneage Street West, Aston Science Park, Birmingham
- Rape and Sexual Assault Service (RSASS) Progress Report 2001.
- Research Project into the needs of black and minority ethnic communities in the Lancaster District, 2001, K Chaha and S Edwards, CVS and K Chahal Ltd
- Rural Areas and Crime, by Catriona Mirlees-Black, Home Office Research and Statistics Directorate Research Findings No. 77
- Ryelands Estate Survey of Tenants, CEL for Lancaster City Council, Council Housing Dept.
- Survey on Gay and Lesbian Experiences, L Moran, Birkbeck College, London
- Survey on Perceptions of Danger in the West End, Dr Mark Levine, Dept. of Psychology, Lancaster University
- The Lancaster District Profile, Lancaster City Council, Economic Development Service
- Women Influencing Safer Environments (WISE) Consultation